

Queens Adventist Youth Federation
SMITH AND COLLINS FAMILY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION
Receipt Deadline: May 11, 2011
APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Established in 1982, the Queens Adventist Youth Federation is a youth organization within the Northeastern conference Youth Department. One of eleven Federations within the areas of New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Boston areas, Queens Federation has rose to the level of distinction among its counterparts. We have created programs and initiatives that have placed a lasting impression on the Queens Area. Central to the mission of the Queens Adventist Youth Federation is to empower young men and women with the leadership skills, educational achievement and spiritual fortitude necessary to make a lasting impact on society. We are dedicated to helping the young people in our jurisdiction achieve all the Lord has planned for their lives. Smith and Collins Family Memorial Scholarship is an example of our commitment to that goal through the arena of higher education. In addition, we will provide information for and or facilitate other scholarships, financial education initiatives, college tours, and leadership training. Established in 2001 and Renamed in 2010, the Smith and Collins Family Memorial Scholarship program was established to benefit high school seniors who plan to attend college as full time students for the fall semester.
